BAER HAD THE FLOOR

He Reads His Argument Before the Strike Commission.

CHALLENGES MINERS' CONTENTIONS.

Concludes His Remarks by Submitting a Wage Proposition and Severely Scores the National Civic Federation.

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—With the expectation of hearing George F. Baer, president of the Reading company, make the closing argument against the demands of the miners the largest crowd that has yet jammed into the United States circuit court room was present when the coal strike commission opened its session. Former Congressman Wolverton, the principal counsel for the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, concluded his argument. Mr. Wolverton presented an array of figures tending to show that the average earnings of the contract miners of the Reading company are higher than the average contract miners of most of the skilled workmen of the state. He also opposed the demand for an 8-hour day, because it would reduce the output of the mines, and also would reduce the present wages of the men. Reverting to the wage question, Mr. Wolverton said that if an increase in wages is decided upon it should not be a horizontal one, but should be on a sliding scale basis.

When Mr. Wolverton concluded Mr. Baer read a carefully prepared argument.

President Baer conceded the right of men to organize for any lawful purpose. Combinations of capital and labor, he said, each must keep within the law. The lawlessness in the coal regions, he held, was the direct result of mistaken theories as to the rights of mine workers, and the leaders of the organization he held responsible for the situation they created. He charged that the leaders intended to enforce their demands by threatened destruction of the mines, well knowing that if pumping ceased the mines would be destroyed. The public is now suffering for want of fuel, due to the cessation of work in the anthracite fields for five months.

Continuing, Mr. Baer said: "Many good men have found fault with us for not making an agreement with the United Mine Workers of America. All of the operators were asked to meet in convention with a view to adopting a uniform scale. The conditions of employment are not always the same. Our chief objection to this organization was that it was a foreign organization, interested in a rival and competitive business. We never could see the wisdom of permitting the bituminous coal miners to inject themselves into the anthracite mining situation. It has proved to be just as mischievous as we believed it would be."

Mr. Baer contended that the United Mine Workers have created a monster monopoly. To support the strike they taxed the bituminous miners and members of other labor organizations. Owners of bituminous mines, he averred, also contributed to the strike fund, in the hope of gain. The result was that the prices of both hard and soft coal more than doubled, to the great suffering of the public. The records show, said Mr. Baer, that every honest effort was made to show the miners that their demands for a uniform scale was unjust.

Civic Federation Scored.

Mr. Baer continued: "We met them, as they requested, before the National Civic Federation of Labor, and discussed the whole situation. At the suggestion of the civic federation a committee of our employees and operators was appointed to further consider the subject and report to a meeting of the federation, to be called by its chairman. When we parted, it was with the distinct understanding that we should report to the civic federation the result of our conference. To our amazement the civic federation, for reasons of its own, was never convened to hear our report. They deserted the cause they had espoused." The speaker contended that the testimony offered the strike commission justified the position of the coal operators.

Mr. Baer then presented this proposition: "That the rate of wages now paid shall be the minimum basis for the next three years; that from the first of November to the first of April, 1903, for each 5 cents in excess of $4.50 per ton on the average price realized for white ash coal in the harbor of New York, on all sizes above pea, wages shall be advanced 1 per cent; the wages to rise or fall 1 per cent for each 5 cents increase or decrease in prices, but they shall never fall during the next three years below the present basis. The average price for each region to be ascertained by a competent accountant, to be appointed by Judge Gray, chairman of the commission, or by one of the United States circuit judges holding court in the city of Philadelphia."

Laying down his address and surveying the commissioners, Mr. Baer said that in disputes between capital and labor the general public is largely in sympathy with labor. It is human, he said, and a good trait in the race to sympathize with the weak against the strong, and therefore, "I can find no fault with the criticisms, though they are harsh, that have been made against us."

WAIVES HER DEMAND.

Germany to Get Her Cash in Five Monthly Installments.

Washington, Feb. 12.—At the urgent suggestion of Baron Von Sternberg, the German government has agreed to waive its demand for a cash payment of $340,000, and has accepted the proposition of its minister that it receive this money from Venezuela in five monthly installments, the first installment to be paid two weeks after the signing of the protocol. This fact has been communicated to Mr. Bowen, and the German minister hopes to have his protocol ready for signature within the next 24 hours.

Germany's repudiation of Count Quadri's action, who early in the negotiations signed with the other negotiators an agreement to the effect that the allies would waive cash payment, provided a sufficient guarantee was offered by Mr. Bowen, has stirred up strife between the allies. Although the London government is not disposed to alter its protocol, which already has received Mr. Bowen's verbal approval, Italy is still considering whether she will consent to accept less than her ally.

OHIO REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

League in Convention at Columbus. President's Address.

Columbus, Feb. 12.—The eighteenth annual convention of the State League of Republican clubs convened at the Board of Trade auditorium here with a light attendance. A number of persons prominent in the councils of the party were present.

President Scott Bonham, in his annual address eulogized the junior Ohio senator, whose successor will be chosen by the legislature this year. He said: "We have learned to love him and confide in the strength of his great character, and we have determined to demand that Marcus A. Hanna be his own successor in the United States senate." In reviewing the work of Governor Nash and the legislature in securing a new municipal code, President Bonham called attention to the unusual importance of the approaching April elections, from the remotest country villages to the metropolitan cities. He urged the clubs to encourage the wearing of carnations on McKinley's birthday, and strongly advocated the renomination of President Roosevelt. There are 250 permanently organized Republican clubs in Ohio, the Railway club at Columbus leading with 3,117 members and the Blaine club of Cincinnati coming next with 2,072 members. The temporary clubs during the last presidential elections swelled the number of Republican clubs in Ohio to 1,300.

Icebound Fishermen.

Channel, Newfoundland, Feb. 12.—The revenue cutter Seminole, from Boston, has arrived safely at Port Basque, after a terrific battle, lasting 18 hours, with heavy Arctic ice. The Seminole is now 100 miles from the imprisoned fishermen in the Bay Islands. Between this point and where a dozen or more schooners, some American, are held fast in the frozen sea, still heavier ice must be encountered before the Seminole can succeed in reaching her destination. The Canadians, who for more than a month have endeavored in vain to penetrate the icefield, have given up hope of reaching their countrymen in the Bay of Islands. They think it impossible for the Seminole to force her way through the pack of ice, but the Americans will make the effort after coal and more provisions are added to the revenue cutter's stores.

Disagreement Anticipated.

Indianapolis, Feb. 12.—Argument in the trial of Dr. J. C. Alexander, charged with grave robbing, was continued before the jury in the criminal court. Mr. Spaan began his closing speech for the defense when the court convened, and was followed by Mr. Brown for the prosecution. Rumors are rife that the jury will disagree. This opinion is entertained not only by persons who have kept in close touch with the trial, but by at least two of the attorneys for the prosecution. The make-up of the jury was not satisfactory to the prosecution when it was completed. The prosecution exhausted all its challenges and was forced to leave at least three men on the jury who would otherwise have been peremptorily excused.

Both May Marry Again.

Dresden, Saxony, Feb. 12.—The decree of divorce granted to Crown Prince Frederick permits both parties to marry again. The crown prince applied merely for a separation of bed and board, but the former crown princess asked for an absolute divorce, which the judges decided they could not refuse under the new civil code, which King George himself designated as governing the proceedings. The princess, however, can not marry Giron and get recognition of her marriage under the German law.

The Haymakers' Minstrels are all requested to meet at Washington Opera House to-night at 7 o'clock.

The first fourteen Roman emperors all shaved their faces clean. There is a portrait bust representing Nero with a beard, but it is not believed to be authentic.

The late Mr. John T. Tucker is said to have been a great sufferer from his head, having had three sunstrokes. At times the pain was so intense as to be almost beyond endurance. It is supposed he was laboring under aberration of mind from this cause when he ended his existence. His family hadn't the remotest idea he contemplated such a thing else they would have removed any weapon with which he could have destroyed himself. Aside from the inciting cause mentioned, there was no man of sounder mind and better business qualifications and judgment.

Prof. Henry Lloyd, of Kentucky University, was called on this week to settle a dispute between two horsemen of Lexington. Charles L. Bailey and Dick Wilson were trying to trade road horses. Wilson considered his horse worth $25 more than Bailey's, and the latter said he thought his horse worth $50 more than Wilson considered the value of his horse. They finally agreed to split the difference; then the hitch came. Wilson claimed the difference was only $12.50 and Bailey contended he was entitled to $37.50. Prof. Lloyd decided in Wilson's favor. Bailey is not satisfied and has appealed to the sporting editor of a newspaper.

A telegram received Thursday announced the death of Mr. Wm. Rosenberg, uncle of Mrs. Strauss, wife of Mr. S. Strauss of the New York Store. Mr. Rosenberg died suddenly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hirsch, in Philadelphia, the immediate cause of his demise being a stroke of apoplexy. He was sixty-six years of age, and was for many years a leading business man of Louisville, having been the founder of the shoe house of Rosenberg, Flexner & Mendel. Six years ago he retired from business and had been making his home with his daughter in Philadelphia. The funeral will take place Sunday at the Jewish temple in Louisville.

In Social Circles.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Frederick was a scene of gayety last night, when their daughter, Miss Brenta Frederick, entertained in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Frost, of Ripley. The spacious parlors and dining room were thrown open and from 8 until 11, ping-pong, billiards, crokinole and dancing were indulged in.

Miss Ethel Hutchison rendered some beautiful selections on the piano. Delicious refreshments were partaken of, and as the guests departed all declared a most delightful evening had been spent.

"When We Were Twenty-one."

"When We Were Twenty-one" is a love story pure and simple and is told in a straightforward, homely way. It is a story of how Dick Carewe and his comrades rear and guide the only son of a deceased chum; how they save him from the pitfalls that lie in the path of life at twenty-one. It is a story of hearts bound together by ties of friendship and of how the comrades save their ward from the results of his foolish impetuosity. It also tells how a great and abiding love comes to Dick in return for his willing self-sacrifice for the girl he loves and who he thinks loves his ward. This play will be presented at Washington Opera House Saturday, February 14th. Seats now on sale at Geo. H. Frank & Co.'s, and patrons can rest assured of a first-class presentation of this successful drama.

HELD UP AN EXPRESS.

Mounted Men Perpetrate a Bold Job Within Sight of Butte.

TREASURE CAR AND SAFE SHATTERED.

Respectable Amount of Plunder Said to Have Been Secured by the Thieves—Posses With Bloodhounds on the Trail.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 12.—The Burlington express No. 6, eastbound, was held up shortly after midnight on the Northern Pacific tracks, eight miles east of this city, near Homestead, by mounted men. They covered the sides of the train with their guns, uncoupled the engine, mail and express cars and ran them ahead of the train about two miles. The trainmen of the passenger train, after the robbers had left with the engine and cars, hastened back towards Butte and met an incoming freight train, the engine of which was uncoupled to run to Butte, and the alarm was given. A sheriff and posse and force of police have left for the scene on a special train. The railway officials have asked the penitentiary officials at Deer Lodge for their bloodhounds.

Sheriff Quinn and posse, when about a mile and a half out of the city, were met by Division Superintendent Boyle, who was a passenger on the train held up. Superintendent Boyle rushed to the front of the train when it was stopped by the robbers, but refrained from shooting, fearing he would hit the trainmen. Every officer in the city were called to South Butte, and all approaches to the city are carefully guarded.

The train was a double header and the engines with the mail and express cars were run about 600 feet ahead of the rest of the train. In a few moments after the train was stopped there were two explosions of dynamite, which wrecked the express cars. The roof was blown off, but no one was injured. Reports as to the amount of booty secured by the robbers vary. The express messenger says that the robbers did not get more than $500. In other quarters it is said the plunder will amount to several thousand dollars at least. It is also said that several of the mail pouches were rifled. A railway mail clerk, whose name can not be ascertained at present, was shot in the hold-up. It is not thought his wound is dangerous.

Reward For the Bandits.

Helena, Mont., Feb. 12.—The Northern Pacific Railway company has offered a reward of $5,000 for the arrest and conviction of the five men who are said to have held up the Burlington express, just east of Butte. The company will pay the $5,000 reward for the entire gang, or $1,000 for each member convicted.

Odell at the White House.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Governor Odell of New York, accompanied by Representative Littauer, also of New York, called upon the president. They remained in conference with him for a considerable time. Governor Odell declined to discuss in any detail his conference with the president. It is understood that all matters under discussion have been adjusted so as to meet the approval of all interested parties except that of providing a place for W. W. Worden of Saratoga, whom Governor Odell wanted appointed as shipping commissioner of New York to succeed Captain Joseph M. Dickey, who is to become railroad commissioner. A place is to be found for Mr. Worden.

Workmen Deported.

San Francisco, Feb. 12.—Captain H. H. Schell of the immigration bureau has left for New York with 15 brickmakers in his charge. The men came to this country several months ago, and the San Francisco brick company will have to answer in court for the presence of the men here. For the last two months the brickmakers have been detained on Angel Island. As the hearing of the charges against the brick company seemed far distant it was declared to take the depositions of the men and then deport them.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 12.—The court of appeals sustained a motion by the Aetna and 20 other life insurance companies for an injunction to restrain the state board of valuation and assessment from assessing them for franchise taxes, pending final disposition of their appeal from the Franklin circuit court holding them liable. The cases will be heard at present term of the court.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—William R. Herbert, said to be the Chicago manager of the National Cash Register company, shot and almost instantly killed himself in this city. His home is said to be in Dayton, O.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

Mr. Claude H. Tolle and Miss Nannie Gabby to be Married Tuesday, Feb. 24th.

The marriage of Miss Nannie Gabby, of Forest avenue, to Mr. Claude H. Tolle, formerly of this city but now of Buffalo, N. Y., will be solemnized Tuesday, Feb. 24th, at the home of the bride-elect. The couple have been devoted sweethearts for a number of years, and the announcement of their approaching nuptials has been anticipated by their many friends.

Miss Gabby is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gabby, and is one of Maysville's charming and accomplished young ladies.

The groom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tolle, and was formerly connected with the BULLETIN, but later embarked in the merchandising business. After conducting this business successfully for a year or so, he disposed of the business to accept a position with the S. H. Knox syndicate of stores. His success with the Knox syndicate shows what a young man can accomplish by close attention to business.

He has received a number of promotions until now he is Business Manager of the Buffalo house, one of the largest stores conducted by the Knox syndicate. Claude is a most worthy and upright young man.

A host of friends will unite with the BULLETIN in offering congratulations and good wishes in advance of the happy event.

For the benefit of those who may have overlooked the matter, we republish the display announcement at bottom of this column. Merchants should understand that this schedule is necessary to make the catching of the rural mails possible, and advertisers must be on time if they expect changes to be made promptly. Read the schedule and remember its limitations. What's the use of adopting rules if they are not lived up to?

Notice to Advertisers..

In order to catch the rural mails, it will be necessary for the BULLETIN to go to press much earlier than heretofore. The re-arrangement of our office schedule permits the handling of only live local news during the early morning hours, hence advertisers should see that their favors reach us the previous afternoon.

Copy For Changes

In display announcements will not be received for insertion in the succeeding issue later than 4 o'clock on ordinary days and 3 p. m. Saturdays. Of course it is advisable to send them in much sooner than this to receive proper treatment, but above hours are the limit, and this rule will be rigidly enforced in future.

At Mt. Sterling the trial of Miss Sarah V. King, a pretty young white woman who was charged with stealing three $1,000 bills from a belt belonging to J. Gano Johnson, a farmer, ended in a verdict of acquittal. The standing of the parties in the county caused the trial to be one of unusual interest. Miss King was a domestic in the family of Johnson at the time of the supposed theft and was arrested for the crime, after seven months elapsed, upon the affidavit of a negro man. She says she will institute suit for false arrest and imprisonment.

Tear Down Your Smokehouse!

The newer and better way of smoking meat is to apply the condensed oil of smoke with a brush or sponge. Makes the meat firmer, gives it a better flavor and protects it more surely from germs and insects. Costs but a trifle and you can do more in a minute and do it more thoroughly than by the old tedious process.

JUDGE COCHRAN'S CHANCES.

His Appointment to Succeed Circuit Judge Day Probable—Yerkes May Succeed the Maysvillian.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The possibilities of the appointment of Judge A. M. J. Cochran, of the Eastern Kentucky district, to the Sixth Circuit Judgeship to succeed Judge Day caused a report to-day that Internal Revenue Commissioner Yerkes will be a candidate for Judge Cochran's place. Mr. Yerkes, it is said, will have the support of Judge Cochran in view of the fact that the Commissioner was one of the most loyal supporters of Judge Cochran when he was a candidate for appointment two years ago. Judge Cochran, it had been thought, would recommend District Attorney Tinsley for the position, but Mr. Yerkes' candidacy will probably change his indorsement.

It is reported to-night that the President has in the last few days sounded a number of Ohio politicians on the proposition to give the judgeship to Kentucky. He has asked them about the three candidates, Cochran, Wilson and DuRelle, and practically all of them have asked for Judge Cochran's appointment if the appointment has to go outside the State of Ohio. The fact that Judge Cochran has such strong Ohio backing evidently accounts for his prominent position in the race. When the news that the President had offered the judgeship to Gen. Basil Duke, of Louisville, became generally known in Washington this afternoon it caused an immediate conference among Ohio politicians. They now realize that the President is in earnest in his threat not to give the appointment to Ohio and they are accordingly trying to get Hanna and Foraker together on some Ohioan other than Solicitor General Richards and Judge Thompson.

The smallpox bugaboo has been used to scare grown people, like the old pumpkin with a candle in it once scared us children. In a great number of cases in this county, not one has been serious. A clerk in a store down at Ford had it and didn't know it. Eight or more people caught it from him. They would probably never have known what was the matter with him if the doctors had not found out.

The best thing that could happen to any community would be for everybody in it to have the smallpox and be done with it. A disease that is so mild that people don't know when they have it is not dangerous, and all of this talk about smallpox should stop and let business go on. In other countries, and in parts of our own country, no attention is paid to it. Why should we be foolish about it?

GREENWOOD LIBRARY.

Thirty-Four Volumes Added During the Past Year.

The International Library of Famous Literature—twenty volumes.

Historic Roads of America, first two volumes.
Messages and Papers of the Presidents, supplement 1902.

Ollie Smith brought suit at Covington against the C. and O. for $20,500 damages. Smith states that in October last, while employed in the C. and O. shops, he was directed to strike a chisel for the purpose of cutting a rivet. When the rivet was cut by the blow it struck his left eye, destroying the sight thereof, and, as a farther result, he is threatened with loss of sight of the other eye. He claims that the injury was due to the wanton neglect of the company's foreman.

A CITIZEN'S STORY.

Told by a Maysville Citizen For the Benefit of Maysville People.

The greatest importance attached to the following is that it concerns a Maysville citizen. It would lose three quarters of its interest if it involved some resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., or Woonsocket, R. I. Like all the testimony which has appeared here and like all which will follow about the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, it comes from residents, fellow-citizens and neighbors. No other remedy can show such a record of home cures. Read this case:

Mrs. R. R. Housh, of 394 Forest avenue, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills quickly relieved Mr. Housh of backache which had been a source of discomfort to him for some time. I procured the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets and its proven value is so great that it should be known throughout the world."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
